VIRTUAL LEARNING FORM

St. Katherine of Siena School will offer virtual online learning for those students who are unable to be physically present in the school building because a parent is not comfortable in sending their child/ren to school. There is a mandatory period of the First Trimester which ends on December 4, 2020. Depending on the circumstances, the remaining trimesters will be evaluated.

Participation in online learning must be under the supervision of the parent/guardian and is subject to school policies and regulations including but not limited to student conduct/behavior and acceptable use of technology.

Student Responsibilities for online learning;

- Students must keep camera on for face to face learning.
- Microphone must be muted unless called upon or needs to ask questions.
- Lessons cannot be recorded.
- Students must wear gym uniform.
- Use appropriate backgrounds.
- Sit at a table or desk.
- Attend the entire class.
- Follow student's roster.
- Respectful and actively participate.

My signature below indicates my understanding and acknowledgment for my child/ren to participate in Virtual Learning at St. Katherine of Siena School. This form must be return to me by August 14th by email: rtanghesks@gmail.com
